Mission Statement

“Invigorating Summit County’s musical environment by creating exciting and intimate Learning and Performance Opportunities for Today’s and Tomorrow’s Musicians”

The Utah Music Festival seeks to create a passion among young, amateur, and professional musicians for the highest level of education and performance. The founders also focus on culturally and economically benefiting the host communities with an open and winsome approach to the arts. Utah Music Festival’s primary objective is to cultivate, educate and encourage current and future generations of student & professional musicians by engaging them in a rewarding learning process and exciting musical performances.

The public objective is to enhance Summit County’s musical environment, by making music easily available to area residents and visitors. The following is a list of several goals included in the mission statement:

- Continue operating an internationally respected educational & performance Music Festival & School
- Development of County Youth Orchestra, Concert Band, & Choir
- The attraction of a high level of faculty and performer from Summit County, Utah, and the Nation to interact with Summit County and Utah musicians
- Low faculty to student ratio engendering personal mentoring and performance skills
- Students coach and perform with the faculty encouraging personal growth and responsibility to attain a high level of professionalism and artistic sensitivity
- Enjoyable extra-curricular activities shared with students and faculty to build lasting relationships
- Music enrichment and workshop programs provided for Utah’s school music department programs
- Individual music lessons offered throughout Summit County
- Public Concerts with area and visiting professionals – free to all students and children
- Amateur musician ensemble coaching and performance opportunities
- Concert outreach to underserved populations through “The Wentworth” and other civic groups
- Television Broadcast of music programs throughout Summit County & Utah
- The development of a cultural destination resort for Park City & Summit County
- The preservation and advancement of traditional forms of music and the exploration of newly created musical works
